

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
SAN ANTONIO

“HAPPY
بِالْحَقِّ
BIRTH OF BAHÁ'U'LLÁH
TWIN HOLY DAYS”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12TH

This Holy Day is honored with community gatherings of Prayers and Music.

The most appropriate greeting for this Holy Day is: "HAPPY TWIN HOLY DAYS"

On this holiday, there are no dietary restrictions, but alcohol is restricted.

CREDIT/SOURCES

- About the Birth of the Bab - Arts, Podcasts, Videos and Articles (bahaiblog.net)
- Birth of Bahauallah.pdf (umich.edu)

Mirza Husayn-Ali (Baha'ullah) is the Prophet-founder of the Baha'i Faith.

Baha'ullah meaning "Glory of God" in Arabic. The Baha'i faith is a world religion meant to unite all races and peoples in the world.

The Bahá'í faith is based on justice, unity, and peace. These Twin Holy Days are celebrated annually as a Festival whereas the closely interwoven lives and missions of these two Divine Luminaries are remembered together.

This is one of the nine holy days of the year and the community gatherings are hosted with prayers and music.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-SAN ANTONIO
President's Commission on Equity and Inclusive Excellence