During Diwali, the festival of lights is the most awaited and celebrated festivals in India.

Wearing new clothes while performing Ganesha-Laxmi Pujan and Rangoli making as well as decorating the home are ways in which Hindu families celebrate the occasion.

Happy Diwali

November 4th

There are no dietary restrictions. The celebrations are accompanied with a huge feast especially with a variety of sweets.

Laxmi-Ganesha Pujan, the Goddess of prosperity is worshiped in absolute faith with Laddu, flowers, and by reciting Aarti--as it is believed to bring happiness & prosperity in every household.
