

P

U

R

I

M

Happy Purim!

This holiday is celebrated by dressing up, giving and feasting with meals, helping those in need, making noise with groggers, and putting on plays! This religious holiday is celebrated in Canada, Israel, Australia, United Kingdom, & United States

Dietary must consist of foods with seeds as well as drink more wine than one is accustomed to.

According to The Biblical Book of Esther; it holds significance to Queen Esther's success in stopping Haman, The King's counselor to massacre the Jews.

March 16th-17th

Sourced:

- Purim Traditions: What You Need to Know (a Cheat Sheet)
- 18Doors

