

On this holiday, people traditionally eat sattu and jaggery.

HAPPY Makar Sankranti GOOD WISHES JAN 7TH

The classical greeting for this religious holiday is "Happy Makar Sankranti!"

Those observing this holiday; will worship the sun and going to temples to take a cleansing bath in the Ganges River.

Depending on the solar cycle, as it marks the first day of the sun's transition to Capricorn (zodiac sign) This significance the arrival of long days as well as the importance of the mostly celebrated 'Pongal Festival,' as it celebrates the lord Surya (sun God) and Lord Indra (rain God) for helping farmers attaining better-yeilding crops.

Credit/Sources:
- How is Pongal celebrated? -
Simple Hinduism

